THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into this       day of Sept. 1909, by and between J. W. WINTEROSE and WM. McDONALD, of Heber City, Wasatch County, Utah.

For the consideration hereinafter mentioned the said J. W. WINTEROSE agrees to build a barn at the said WILLIAM McDONALD'S ranch north of Heber City, Utah and to furnish all material for same except rock and mortar for foundations, and clamps and hinges for doors.

Said barn to be 22' X 32' outside measurement and to conform to plan which is hereto attached and made part of this Agreement, and to the following specifications:--

S       2 X 6 doubled; plates 2 X 6 doubled; sleepers 2 X 8 - 24" on centers; ceiling joists 2 X 8 - 24" on centers; studding 2 X 6 - 16' - 24" on centers; rafters 2 X 6 - 16' - 24" on centers; lower floor to cover entire floor space and to be of 2" plank; ceiling floor to be of 1" boards and to cover entire ceiling; walls of barn to be of 1 X 8 rustic, well nailed to studding; roof to be of common sheathing lumber covered with "Star A Star" cedar shingles; one alley about 4' wide to run through center of barn from side to side with 3' X 6' door at entrance. In each end of barn will be a stable with mangers facing alley. A door 4' X 7' at entrance of each stable. The lumber, except sheathing and floor to be good, sound native lumber, sawed from green timbers. The lumber for sheathing and floors must be sound but may be of second class. Two windows 8 X 10 to be placed in each end of barn and one window 8 X 10 in gable.

All work to be done in a good workmanlike manner.

Said barn is to be completed not later than October 31, 1909.

The said WILLIAM McDONALD agrees to pay to the said J. W. WINTEROSE in consideration of the erection of said barn the sum of Four Hundred Twelve Dollars, ($412.00), when the barn is completed.

It is provided that One Dollar ($1.00) of said money be held back for each day after October 31, 1909 that said barn may be incomplete in case the said J. W. WINTEROSE is not held back or in any way delayed by the said WM. McDONALD.
